GENERAL SECRETARY

"As informed earlier, another round of discussion was held by the Sub-Committee of IBA Negotiating Committee with our Organisations on the 6th September 2017 afternoon at IBA office in Mumbai. From the IBA side, their team consisted of Shri Rakesh Sharma (MD-CEO, Canara Bank), Chairman of the Sub-Committee and our team consisted of representatives from our 5 Unions.

In this round of discussions, our demands like additional Casual Leave for physically challenged employees, accumulation of Privilege leave upto 300 days and encashment of the same, PL availed on medical grounds not be counted as an occasion, some improvement in sick leave benefit, avilment of sick leave by lady employees when their children fall sick, some improvement in maternity leave and paternity leave, child care leave, treatment of absence during curfew, etc, Leave bank system, simplified formula for calculation of OT wages, problems faced by employees covered by New Pension Scheme, etc. were discussed further. Some more discussions are necessary before we can finalise these issues.

It was decided to hold the next round of meeting of the Sub-Committee on 3rd October 2017.

With greetings,
