Then the agenda of bidding farewell to Com. Jyoti Bhusan Mohapatra and Com. Pradip Kumar Patra was taken up. Many members spoke high of Com. Mohapatra & Com. Patra and the contributions made by both of them to enhance the image of the Circle Association. Com. President, Dy. General Secretaries of all the Modules, Hony. Secretary of the Cooperative and most of the Circle Committee members in their respective speeches also praised the outstanding contributions of Com. Mohapatra to the Circle Association as well as to the Federation. Com. Mohapatra's principled approach on problems of the members / issues with circle management and his firm belief in bilateralism ensured that in the industrial relations with the Bank at the circle level has always been cordial and warm even during some challenging period. His cordial relation with SBIOA, SBI SC/ST Employees Welfare Council as well as with SBI Pensioners

Association has strengthened our unity during his tenure. Under his leadership, it has been proved beyond doubt that SBI Staff Association, Bhubaneswar Circle is always committed to believe in consultation and collaboration. At the end both Com. Mohapatra & Com. Patra recalled their old experiences in the Bank as well as in the Union in a very nostalgic manner and advised the Committee members to remain united and co-operate with the leaders wholeheartedly to bring further laurels in the future. The entire scenario of the house was charged with sentiment and pathos. Ultimately with deep emotion and love, the circle committee bade farewell to the veteran leaders and wished them happy, healthy and peaceful retired life.

We, heartily congratulate the Circle Committee and the newly co-opted office bearers and look forward to a bright future. Once again I thank the entire Circle Committee for co-operating with me in creating a historic movement.

With comradely greetings
